

Do you wish to receive additional mailings from outside groups?

On occasion, IMRF receives requests from various organizations to mail information to our retired members. These mailings are done as what's known as a "blind mailing."

The term blind mailing means that the outside organization that requested the mailing never "sees" the mailing list; members' names and addresses are never given to anyone but a bonded mail house. At no time are retired members' names and addresses provided to these organizations.

Please understand that IMRF never sells or rents the names or addresses of our retired members.

An example of a blind mailing is material sent by IMRF-endorsed insurance broker Doyle Rowe, LTD.

If you would like to remove your name from these blind mailings, please complete the form below and return it to IMRF. You will still continue to receive IMRF publications.

We want to provide our retired members with information that would be of interest to them.

However, we also honor our members' wishes to choose whether or not they would like to participate in these types of mailings.
