

Do you wish to receive additional mailings from outside groups?

On occasion, IMRF receives requests from various organizations to mail information to our retired members. IMRF is under no obligation to comply with these requests. However, when we do, the mailing is done as a “blind mailing.”

The term “blind mailing” means that the outside organization never “sees” the mailing list. The organization provides its material to IMRF and pays for the entire cost of the mailing. Although IMRF conducts the mailing, we do not pay for any part of the mailing.

Also, at no time is a mailing list of our retired members’ names and addresses provided to these organizations.

Please understand that IMRF does not sell the names of our retired members; IMRF does not rent the names of our retired members.

If you would like to remove your name from these blind mailings, please complete the form below and return it to IMRF. You will still continue to receive IMRF publications.

We want you to have the opportunity to receive information that may be of interest to you. However, we also honor your wishes to choose whether or not you would like to participate in these types of mailings.
