Market Commentary

Global equity markets continued their rally during March, ending the First Quarter 2021 up strong, despite rising bond yields.

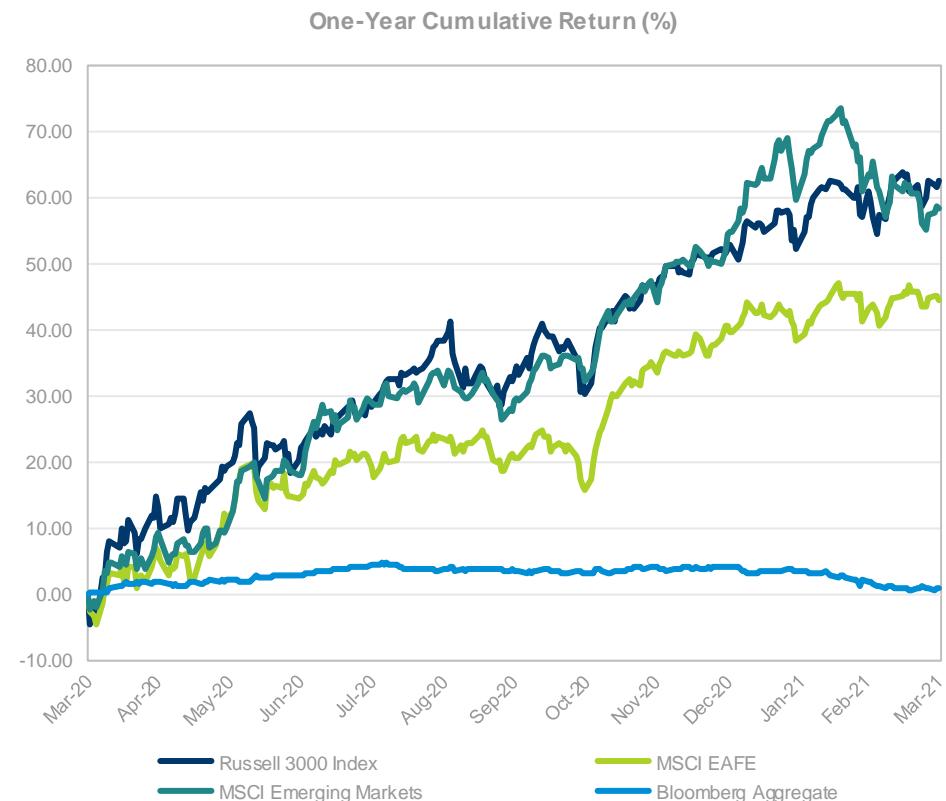

In the United States, Georgia's senate-election in January, which led to a Democratic-controlled Senate, set the stage for additional economic stimulus to aid with economic recovery efforts. President Joe Biden signed into law the $1.9 trillion stimulus bill, The American Rescue Plan, on March 11, 2021, providing $1,400 direct payments to eligible Americans.

Additionally, the U.S. and the U.K. both saw successful roll-outs of COVID-19 vaccinations during the month. By the end of the month, the U.S. had administered over 5.1 million doses with 1.8 million people now fully vaccinated.

Unemployment in the United States declined during March from 6.2% to 6.0% having added 916,000 jobs during the month.

Manufacturing in the United States continued to grow during March. The ISM Manufacturing Index registered 64.7 percent, an increase of 3.9 percentage points month-over-month.

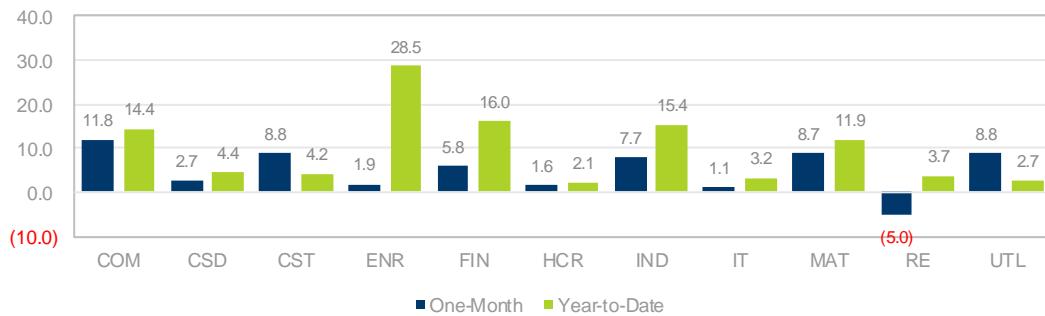

With additional economic stimulus, and the continued vaccination roll-out, consumer sentiment in the United States rose during the month. The University of Michigan Consumer Sentiment Index marked a reading of 84.9 during March, up from 76.8 during February.

Market Commentary

The U.S. stock market rose sharply during March, led by value-oriented stocks. For the month, the Russell 3000 Index returned +3.6% and rose +6.4% during the First Quarter of 2021.

President Biden's $1.9 trillion COVID-19 relief package, The American Rescue Plan signed into law on March 11, 2021, was welcomed by investors in the U.S., helping to push equity markets higher.

Rising bond yields in the fixed income market led to significant outperformance of financials and value-oriented stocks. Value stocks led growth stocks by a wide margin during the month and quarter, with the Russell 1000 Value Index up +11.3% during the quarter, and the Russell 1000 Growth Index up just +0.9%.

Although small capitalization stocks led large capitalization stocks during the quarter, +12.7% versus +5.9%, large caps gained some back during the month, outperforming their small cap counterparts by 2.8%.

Communication Services (+11.8%), Consumer Staples (+8.8%) and Utilities (+8.8%) led sector returns during the month. During the quarter, all eleven sectors returned in positive territory with Energy up +28.5% as commodity prices rose higher throughout the quarter.

Non-U.S. Equity Market

Market Commentary

Equity markets outside of the United States also enjoyed a strong month and quarter, up +1.3% for the month and up +3.5% during the First Quarter of 2021.

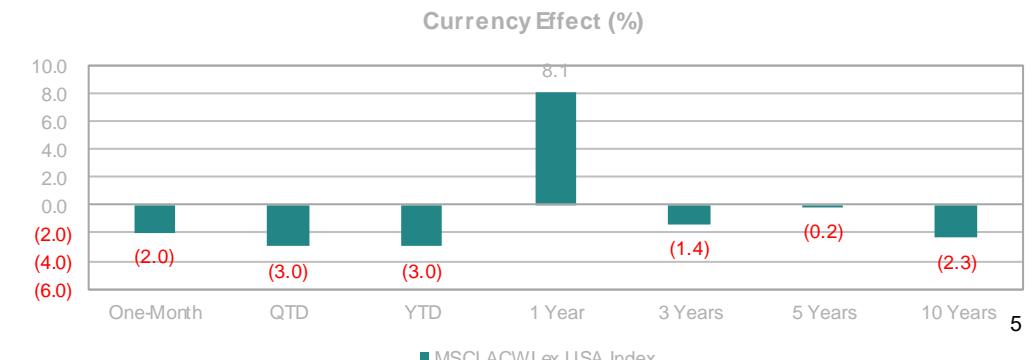

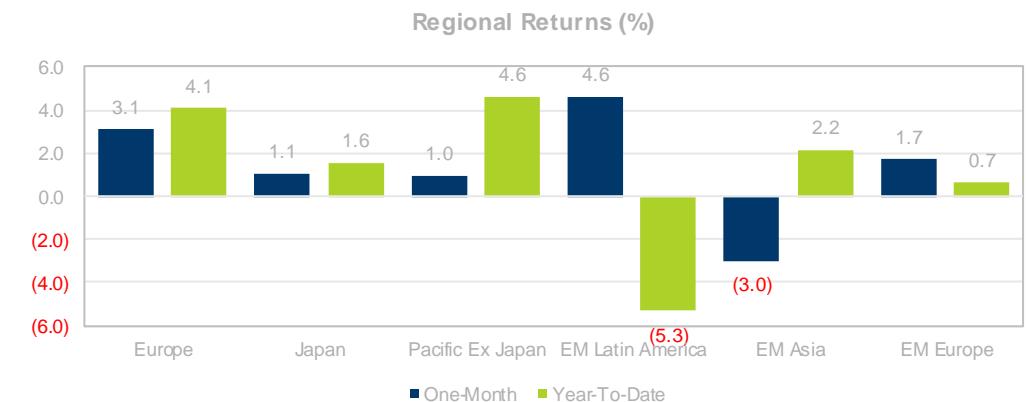

Developed markets again led emerging markets during the month, up +2.3% versus -1.5% for emerging markets equities. Similarly, developed markets outperformed during the quarter, up +3.5%, while emerging markets were up just +2.3%.

Following a successful rollout of COVID-19 vaccinations in the U.K., the country is now planning its reopening with nearly half of its population having already received at least one dose. Prime Minister Boris Johnson's "roadmap" for reopening the economy outlines restrictions being lifted entirely by midsummer.

Germany; however, is now facing vaccination headwinds as AstraZeneca's vaccine has been suspended due to concerns about serious complications.

China, the world's second largest economy, is expected to return to economic growth in the high single-digits this year, although many experts believe that the recovery has been uneven. The country's central bank is now attempting to restrict debt and borrowing without slowing the economy.

The 10-year Treasury yield ended March at 1.74%, up 33 basis points for the month and up 82 basis points from the end of December.
