With Member Access, IMRF is just a click away

Despite the convenience Member Access offers, only one out of every five IMRF retirees has an active account.

“If you’re receiving benefits, that’s your money, so you should be able to log in and view it and make sure that everything is OK,” said Member Services Analyst Nicole Groveau.

Get your 1099-R earlier
Every January, IMRF receives many calls from concerned retirees wanting to know when their 1099-R will become available. When you have a Member Access account, IMRF sends a secure message letting you know immediately! Then, you can log in to your Member Access account and print your document well before you receive your copy in the mail. You can do the same with past direct deposit statements, your Certificate of Benefits, and tax statements from previous years.

Change your address
Many IMRF retirees move to a warmer climate in the winter, then return to their primary residence in the summer. But to keep receiving your pension and IMRF communications throughout the year, you have to notify IMRF of your address change—and we cannot accept address changes over the phone.

Sometimes, retirees call to notify IMRF of their address change after they’ve already moved. Because IMRF cannot accept address changes over the phone, your pension and other critical communications can be delayed until the mailed confirmation reaches IMRF. With Member Access, you can simply update your address online, avoiding further delays.

Change your bank
“People change banks all the time, especially if they’re moving and the bank’s not close to their new house,” Groveau said.

Sometimes, retirees forget to update their bank information with IMRF and the direct deposit is sent to the wrong bank, delaying their pension payment until IMRF can mail them a check. With Member Access

SIGN UP FOR A FREE RETIREE WORKSHOP ONLINE!

Member Access makes signing up for a workshop fast and easy! Or, once you’ve logged in, go to the green “Register for a Workshop” box on the right side of your “My IMRF” profile page, and click “Learn More.”

This will take you to the page shown at right, which lets you search for workshops within a certain distance of your home.

Looking for the workshop you signed up for?

When you sign up online, you won’t receive a notification in the mail. To find your workshop, just sign in to Member Access, and at the top of your profile page, you’ll see a new item: “Important News and Information from IMRF,” shown at right.

GET TO KNOW THE MEMBER ACCESS MENU

You can do more with Member Access than what’s linked directly from your home page! Go to the main menu and click My Account to explore everything Member Access has to offer.

Member Access Tips:

- To return to your Member Access home page, just click “My Account” and then select “My IMRF” from the top menu.

- Once you have a Member Access account, make sure it stays active by logging in regularly! (A handy way to do this is to set a recurring reminder on your calendar.) If you don’t log in for 27 months, your account will be terminated, and you’ll have to sign up for an account again.

- If you forget your password, simply go to www.imrf.org and click “Forgot Password,” then enter the email you used to register. IMRF will email you a temporary password. (Note: If you enter your password wrong five times, you will be locked out of your account. If you’re locked out, wait 24 hours and follow the above instructions for resetting your password.)

Headed south for the winter? Tell IMRF before you go!

Are you one of the many IMRF retirees who spend extended time away from home and forward your mail? If so, make sure to change your address with IMRF to avoid your pension payment being delayed or put on hold. (This applies to all benefit payments, including direct deposit.) Please notify IMRF in addition to notifying the post office.

IMRF requests that you notify us directly of your temporary new address. (Don’t forget to also let us know when you return to your permanent address.)

You can change your address online through Member Access, or send IMRF Form 6.20R, “Annuitant Information Change,” to us by mail or by fax at 630-706-4289.

When does the bank deposit my pension if the first of the month falls on a weekend?

When the first of the month falls on a weekend (like it will this December), your bank probably won’t deposit your monthly pension on the first of the month. Instead, they may deposit it on the previous Friday—the last Friday of the previous month. This worries some retirees when they look at their bank statement and don’t see their pension deposit recorded for that month.

Before calling IMRF, check your previous month’s bank statement. It will almost certainly show a second pension deposit at the end of that month.

When you speak, IMRF listens

Every time you share your opinions with us, you are helping us improve our service to you.

IMRF’s Voice of the Customer program allows us to better understand what you value about IMRF and where you think we can improve.

Through surveys, IMRF reaches out to members, retirees, and employers after you’ve interacted with us—for example, when you’ve attended a workshop or applied for retirement.

We also record suggestions you make through 1-800-ASK-IMRF (275-4673), email, social media, and in person, looking for ways to enhance our service.

“We want to hear it, good or bad,” said Member and Field Services Manager Connie Fox. “We can’t improve ourselves if you don’t tell us that you’re not happy about something.”

The feedback you give us is helping us make improvements to your service experience, including:

- Better Member Access navigation: Due to comments via phone and survey, IMRF has added quick links to Member Access so you can find forms and applications more easily.

- Shorter wait times at 1-800-ASK-IMRF: When IMRF introduced its employer-only number based on employer feedback, it helped members as well.

  “Employer calls tend to be longer, so members would have to wait for a representative to become available,” said IMRF Field Services Supervisor Dawn Seputis. “Now they’re getting faster service, because the employers have their own line.”

Coming this fall…

Your IMRF Benefit Statement for 2019

IMRF retirees, surviving spouses, and beneficiary annuitants receive an annual Benefit Statement. This statement ensures you have up-to-date information about your IMRF benefits and account information. We will mail your IMRF Benefit Statement for 2019 in late November 2018. It will include information such as:

- The amount of your annual increase and the amount of your 2019 pension.
- Current beneficiary information.
- Information about your 1099-R tax form.

Please note: If you retired in 2018, you will not receive a statement this fall. You will receive your first IMRF Benefit Statement in the fall of 2019.
By state law, IMRF cannot pay out a death benefit directly to a minor. Death benefits payable to a minor (someone who is under age 18) are paid in care of the minor’s guardian.

If you want someone other than the minor’s guardian to receive the IMRF benefit on behalf of the minor, or you want to prevent your beneficiary from receiving the benefit payment until they reach age 21, you may name a custodian under the Illinois Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (IUTMA).

Your options for naming a minor as a beneficiary
To name your beneficiaries, fill out IMRF Form 6.11A, “Designation of Beneficiary for Annuitant $3,000 Death Benefit.” Your options are:

• Name your beneficiary without naming a custodian.
  - If your beneficiary is 18 or older at the time of your death, the benefit payment will be paid directly to him or her.
  - If your beneficiary is under the age of 18, the benefit payment will be paid in care of his or her legal guardian.

• Name your beneficiary along with a custodian for your beneficiary under the Illinois Uniform Transfer to Minors Act (IUTMA).

  If you choose this option, your beneficiary must be 21 years of age or older to receive the benefit payment directly. (The custodian must also be 21 years of age or older.)

The IUTMA option:
- Allows you to direct the benefit payment to someone other than the minor’s guardian.
- Prevents your beneficiary from receiving a benefit payment directly until the beneficiary reaches age 21.

To name a custodian for a minor beneficiary under IUTMA, enter the name of the individual in the designated space on IMRF Form 6.11A, followed by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the IUTMA.”

Reviewing your beneficiaries
The best and fastest way to review your beneficiary information is through your Member Access account. We cannot give out beneficiary information or accept changes to your beneficiaries over the phone or by email. (Learn more about creating a Member Access account on page 3 of this newsletter.)

If you wish to change your beneficiary information, or to name a custodian for a minor beneficiary, you can do so through “Secure Online Forms” in Member Access, or by downloading IMRF Form 6.11A, “Designation of Beneficiary for Annuitant $3,000 Death Benefit,” at www.imrf.org/forms, filling it out, and returning it to IMRF. If you don’t have Internet access, you can request a form by calling 1-800-ASK-IMRF (275-4673).
In 2017, IMRF retirees generated $2.51 billion in economic activity

IMRF retirees benefit from their pension—and in turn, grow jobs and help the state economy

IMRF’s latest economic impact study shows that it paid $1.7 billion in benefits to Illinois residents last year. Using multipliers from the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the U.S. Department of Commerce, we see that these payouts generated $2.51 billion in statewide economic activity.

The study shows that IMRF retirees spend money. In 2017, IMRF’s pension recipients helped support 18,044 Illinois jobs. This is an increase of 1,201 over a one-year period. The report also attributes about $691 million in total earnings for Illinois workers, to more than 100,000 IMRF retirees spending pension payments statewide.

“While many people move at a slower pace after retirement, they are still spending money on necessities and more,” said IMRF Executive Director Brian Collins. “In addition, we are happy to report that 86% of IMRF retirees remain in Illinois after they leave their public service jobs. This is a huge contrast to what we are hearing, in terms of out-of-state relocations. In fact, I am a returning Illinois resident myself, because, contrary to many negative reports, great things are happening in Illinois and IMRF is proud to be one of those great things.”

The Multiplier Effect

HOW SPENDING RIPPLES THROUGH THE ECONOMY, SUPPORTING JOBS AND INCOMES IN THE PROCESS

| PENSION BENEFIT | A retired IMRF member...
| DIRECT IMPACT | ...uses her pension money to buy a car.
| INDIRECT IMPACT | As a result of that purchase, the owner of the car dealership, the car salesman, and each of the companies involved in the production of the car all see an increase in income, and spend that additional income.
| INDUCED IMPACT | These companies hire additional employees as a result of this increased business, and those new employees spend their paychecks in the local economy.
